Hello Richmond Consolidated School Community!
Are you a visual artist?

We are looking for a qualified artist to teach our RCS student artists for the first two months of next school year as Mrs. O'Donnell will be on maternity leave. The position is a gratifying and enriching one, in which many different art techniques and materials are explored and used to make students' ideas and creative visions become a concrete reality of visual art work. The art teacher will teach all grades, Kindergarten through 8th grade twice a week using established lessons in the visual art curriculum or using their own art lessons if so desired. Anticipated start date is August 27, 2022 with end date being on or around November 7, 2022. Interested candidates please send cover letter and resume to:

Richmond Land Trust Sixth Annual Photo Contest 2022 Get Out Your Cameras!

The Richmond Land Trust's annual photo contest celebrates the beauty of the community. Besides the incredible vistas we all share, there are also the smaller parts of outdoor life that make us stop and smile. The contest is open to amateur, young and professional photographers.

Photographs must be taken in the town of Richmond and in the time period from January 2019 to August 2022. First and Second place will be awarded in each category. The entry deadline is August 8, 2022. Prizes will be gift certificates to local businesses. There is no entry fee.

Finalists will be announced at the end of August, with prize winners announced at the annual Richmond Land Trust Pie Social in September.

To download a copy of the form and rules, go to the website richmondlandtrust.net. For questions about the contest, please send them to richmondlandmass@gmail.com.

Go to richmondlandtrust.net for all past winning entries.
