RICHMOND SCHOOL WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

DAN WESTON, PRINCIPAL

FROM PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE:

Dear RCS Community,

One of my favorite things to see at RCS is when a student is walking down the hall and drawn into one of the ever-changing bulletin boards. This week some of our bulletin boards shared that the Pre-K is “Soaring into Spring” with kites and butterflies. The first grade reflected on how each one of them was unique after reading Eric Carle’s The Mixed Up Chameleon. And the second grade wrote book reviews that focused on why they liked each book.

Six RCS 8th graders participated in the Berkshire District Attorney’s Office’s annual STRIVE Leadership Conference on Thursday. This year the focus was on youth mental health and wellbeing, inclusivity, and anti-bullying. STRIVE stands for Students Teaching Respect Integrity, Values, and Equity.

Next week will be a busy MCAS week. Please make note these important dates that students will be taking the English Language Arts MCAS assessment.
